Age is at time of apprehension. The counting rules used here differ from those used in Crime and Justice reports prior to 1998. Previously, all offences and all counts of the same offence listed on the apprehension report were included. Since 1998, multiple counts of the same offence have been omitted. The 2006 data are therefore not comparable with those reports prior to 1998. The totals in the table are slightly greater than the sum of the male and female totals because sex is not always known.

*This category includes a small number (78) of criminal trespass - place of residence offences, and a small number (31) of offences relating to break and enter. The latter category was repealed in December 1999, but a small number which occurred prior to this legislative change are still coming to police attention.

The total for offences against the property is slightly greater than the sum of the male and female totals in 2006 because sex is not recorded for three charges.

Age is at time of apprehension. The counting rules used here differ from those used in Crime and Justice reports prior to 1998. Previously, all offences and all counts of the same offence listed on the apprehension report were included. Since 1998, multiple counts of the same offence have been omitted. The 2006 data are therefore not comparable with those reports prior to 1998. The total for driving offences is slightly greater than the sum of the male and female totals because in 2006, sex was not recorded for 19 charges.

Age is at time of apprehension. The counting rules used here differ from those used in Crime and Justice reports prior to 1998. Previously, all offences and all counts of the same offence listed on the apprehension report were included. Since 1998, multiple counts of the same offence have been omitted. The 2006 data are therefore not comparable with those of reports prior to 1998. Racial identity is based on the apprehending officer's assessment of the person's appearance at the point of apprehension.

Age is at time of apprehension. The counting rules used here differ from those used in Crime and Justice reports prior to 1998. Previously, all offences and all counts of the same offence listed on the apprehension report were included. Since 1998, multiple counts of the same offence have been omitted. The 2006 data are therefore not comparable with those of reports prior to 1998.

Racial identity is based on the apprehending officer's assessment of the person's appearance at the point of apprehension.

The figures do not include individuals who had been issued with a cannabis expiation notice. Cannabis expiation notices can only be issued to offenders 18 years of age or older. Nor do the figures include individuals dealt with via the Police Drug Diversion Initiative.

Total	116,361	62,038	39,622	1.88	1.57	2.94

The totals in this table are slightly greater than the sum of male and female totals because sex is not always known or the apprehension applies to a corporation rather than a discrete individual. This applied to 46 offences alleged, 30 apprehension reports and 25 discrete individuals in 2006.

In the "Totals" row, each apprehension report is counted once, irrespective of the number of offence types recorded on that report. Similarly, each alleged offender is counted once, irrespective of how many times he/she was apprehended, and how many offences were involved. As a result, for apprehension reports and alleged offenders, these totals are less than the sum of the numbers recorded for each offence group in the body of the table. If the one apprehension report contained more than one offence group, it would be counted separately in each group but only once in the 'Total' row. Similarly if, during 2006, the one person was charged with more than one offence type, he/she would be counted separately in each offence group but once only in the 'Total' row.
