In Tables 3.3 to 3.7 the counting rules used to calculate the number of sexual offences changed in 1993 to bring them in line with other offences and with the National Counting Rules established by the Australian Bureau of Statistics' National Crime Statistics Unit. Sexual offences are now based on the number of victims rather than the number of offences. Therefore, caution should be exercised when making comparisons with pre-1993 figures.

The figures in this table do not include traffic infringement notices.

The figures for dangerous, reckless or negligent driving are subject to under-enumeration until the end of June 1992, when for the first time all such offences were captured on the Justice Information System. Prior to that date there had been an increasing loss of data caused by data not being entered into the statistical recording system from the prosecution computer system.

* Not counted separately in Crime and Justice reports prior to 1998.

 Not counted separately in Crime and Justice reports prior to 1992.

Changes in police recording practices for traffic, motor vehicle and driving licence offences introduced in 1999 means that the figures from 1999 onwards are not directly comparable with those recorded before 1999.

Rates have been taken from the Australian Bureau of Statistics Census of Population and Housing 2001.

Since 1997, the total number of offences excludes non-offence matters such as restraining orders.

Population rates include overseas visitors.

Offences against the person includes sexual offences and robbery and extortion.

This table has been updated to reflect changes to LGA's introduced in 1998 and is therefore not directly comparable with data published in previous Crime and Justice reports. Earlier reports included two LGA tables – one for metropolitan and one for country LGA's. As a result of the 1998 changes to LGA boundaries, some LGA's are not easily categorised as 'metro' or 'country'. The 2001 report therefore includes one table for all LGA's (Table 3.21a) and an additional table based on Statistical Division to provide a summary of offence rates per broad regional grouping (Table 3.21b).
